

This February 25th at 6:30 - 9:30 pm, In cooperation with Monavie, Tyco Sports will be hosting the first of it's kind awards show.

Merits of the 2009 season will be recognized along with video highlights, guest speakers, dinner, drinks, raffles and hopefully a silent auction, all in an effort to raise money for the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children as well as some local youth sports programs. As you may be aware, it is a great hope that Tyco Sports will not only continue to provide the very best in adult athletics but also to acheive our community goals by providing this type of assistance to our youth.

Dinner will consist of a 1/2 roasted chicken, sausage & peppers, vegie fried rice and a house salad. There will be an open bar but will be limited to domestic beer, wine, soda & well drinks.

All family members and friends are encouraged to join in this festive event.

Ticket Prices are Adults.....$40.00
Children 12-20.....$24.00
